

Joseph A. Francis
www.joe francis.info
joe francis505@gmail.com

Qualifications

PhD in Economic History

London School of Economics, 2014.

MSc in Economic History (Research)

Distinction, London School of Economics, 2009.

BSc in International Studies

First class honours, Open University, 2005.

Prizes and Awards

Economic History Society Annual Conference New Researcher Prize, 2012.

Economic and Social Research Council, 1+3 Studentship, 2008-12.

Publications

'Globalisation, the Terms of Trade, and Argentina's Expansion in the Long Nineteenth Century', Journal of Latin American Studies, forthcoming.

'The Periphery's Terms of Trade in the Nineteenth Century: A Methodological Problem Revisited', Historical Methods: A Journal of Quantitative and Interdisciplinary History, 48:1, 2015, pp. 52-65.

'Professor Basualdo's Peronism', H-industri@: Revista de historia de la industria argentina y latinoamericana, 1:3, 2008.

Referees

PhD examiners:

Professor Cristobal Kay, School of Oriental and African Studies and International Institute of Social Studies, ck7@soas.ac.uk.

Professor Ricardo Salvatore, Universidad Torcuato Di Tella and Florida International University, rdsalva@utdt.edu.

PhD supervisors:

Professor Emeritus Colin M. Lewis, London School of Economics and UCL Institute of the Americas, c.m.lewis@lse.ac.uk.

Dr Chris Minns, London School of Economics, c.minns@lse.ac.uk.